

Alas, alack
The dragons are back
And any time now
They're bound to attack.
The sky will turn
From blue to black
With lightning-flash
And thunder-crack

The dragons are back
The dragons are back
The dragons, the dragons
The dragons are back

They snap their jaws,
Snickerty-snack
Flash their claws
Flickerty-flack,
Twitch their scales
Thwickerty-thwack,
Clank their scales
Clickerty-clack.

The dragons are back
The dragons are back
The dragons, the dragons
The dragons are back.

The mill goes still.
The wind is slack.
The cows won't milk.
The ducks don't quack.
We try to talk
But just lose track:
Go mumble jumble yakkity-yak.

The dragons are back
The dragons are back
The dragons, the dragons
The dragons are back.

We dare not stay.
We quickly pack.
But every road's a cul-de-sac.
The priest has had a heart attack.
The king's become a maniac.

The dragons are back
The dragons are back
The dragons, the dragons
The dragons are back.
