‘Oh dear,’ said Mrs Johnson. ‘There are so many things to do before we leave. We need a “things to do” list.’

‘Look!’ said Mr Johnson. ‘I’ve just written the list. Here it is.’

Things to do

- Take Tiger to the vet
- Give keys to Uncle Ted
- Throw away the rubbish
- Do the washing and ironing
- Feed the pigs
- Pack

‘Can I use the computer?’ asked Alex.

‘Have you thrown away the rubbish yet?’ asked his mum, looking at the list.

‘Not yet,’ said Alex.

‘Do your jobs before you play computer games,’ said his dad.

Alex went out with the rubbish.

‘I’ll go to the vet,’ said Mr Johnson as he picked up the family’s sick cat.

Two hours later, Mr Johnson returned.

‘We’ve already eaten lunch. I’ve kept some food for you. It’s on the table,’ said his wife.

‘Great!’ said Mr Johnson. ‘How’s it going?’

‘I’ve already done the washing but I haven’t done the ironing yet,’ said his wife. ‘Anna has just gone to Uncle Ted’s house with the keys.’

After a while Anna came back.

‘I’ve given the keys to Uncle Ted,’ said Anna. ‘Now he can look after the farm. Can we use the computer, please?’

‘Have you packed the suitcases yet?’ asked Mr Johnson. ‘No yet,’ said Alex, ‘but ...’

‘No buts!’ said his dad. ‘Hurry up! Do it now!’

An hour later Mr Johnson told his family, 'I've fed the pigs.'

'I've just finished the ironing,' said his wife.

'We've packed the suitcases,' said the children.

'The taxi will be here soon,' said Mrs Johnson. 'I'm looking forward to relaxing on the beach.'

'Beach?' said Alex. 'We've packed jumpers and coats. It's August now. Isn't it winter in Hong Kong?' 'No, it's summer in Hong Kong. Why didn't you check the weather?' asked Mr
